

The New York City Department of Correction

is celebrating Women's History Month

March 2005.

These women are a sampling of the over 4,300 women who now work in the Department. We acknowledge the contributions of women throughout the Department's history.

Freddie Wallace-Rakis designed the photo

montage posters here letter-sized.

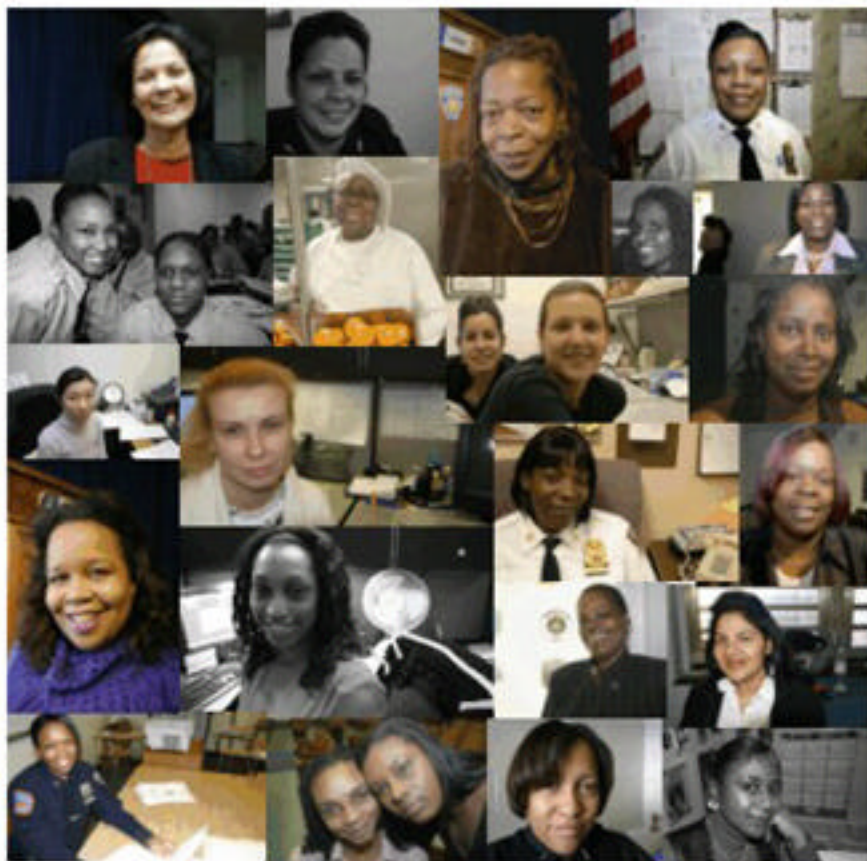

The New York City Department of Correction

*is celebrating Women's History Month
March 2005.*

These women are a sampling of the over
4,300 women who now work in the Department.
We acknowledge the contributions of women
throughout the Department's History.

The New York City Department of Correction

*is celebrating Women's History Month
March 2005.*

These women are a sampling of the over
4,300 women who now work in the Department.
We acknowledge the contributions of women
throughout the Department's History.

The New York City Department of Correction

*is celebrating Women's History Month
March 2005.*

These women are a sampling of the over
4,300 women who now work in the Department.
We acknowledge the contributions of women
throughout the Department's History.

The New York City Department of Correction

*is celebrating Women's History Month
March 2005.*

These women are a sampling of the over 4,300 women who now work in the Department. We acknowledge the contributions of women throughout the Department's History.

The New York City Department of Correction
is celebrating Women's History Month
March 2005.

These women are a sampling of the over 4,300 women who now work in the Department. We acknowledge the contributions of women throughout the Department's History.

