

CORRECTION

Dateline Volume II Number X

NEWS

DECEMBER 1994

Commissioner's Holiday Celebration Dec. 9th

DOC's annual yule observance, the Commissioner's Holiday Celebration, will be held Friday, Dec. 9th, at the Correction Academy in Middle Village.

The festivities will include music provided by a disk jockey (CO Garret Buckley, AMKC), dancing, plenty of food and drink. The occasion is one of the very few during the year when the entire Correction family can be together. The celebration will begin at 7 PM and run to midnight.

The event is open to all Correction Department employees, uniformed and civilian. Each employee is invited to bring a guest. Admission will be without charge but employees will be required to show identification.

Convenient Parking, Transit

Situated at 66-26 Metropolitan Ave., Middle Village, in the Caldor/Rentar Plaza near Christ the King High School, the Academy affords ample opportunity for free parking and provides convenient access to rapid transit. The Academy is a short walk from the Metropolitan Ave. station that is the Queens terminus of the "M" - Nassau Street Local Line accessible to Manhattan DOCers at stations throughout lower Manhattan (Wall St., City Hall, Chambers and Canal). The line's other terminus is Brooklyn's Bay Parkway.

VALLONE VISITS

JATC Programs Capt. Agustin Quinones escorts Commissioner Schembri and City Council Speaker Peter Vallone of Astoria on a recent Rikers visit.

City transit bus routes Q54 and Q58, Queens Surface bus route 67 and Triboro Coach bus routes 38 and 39 also stop near the Academy.

Among those working on arrangements are:

ADW Thomas L. Holley, COs Edward Aswad, Lewis Cash, Louis Dixel, and Evan Rivera, and civilians Maureen Serge, Renée Harper, and Freddie Wallace-Rakis, electronic graphics support co-ordinator, all Central Office;

ADW Joseph Patrissi and Capt. Ellen Cooper, RMSC;

ADW Allen Kozich, Industries; CO James Corrigan, MDC.

Chanukah - Christmas

New Year's

To all in our
Correction family,
Best wishes for a happy
& holy holiday season.

Kwanzaa

Feast of The 3 Kings